

Price transparency – Immigration

In compliance with the Solicitors Regulation Authority requirements, we confirm that our fees as set out below are considered by us to be fair and reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the matter.

Once the details of the matter are better known we can assess if any additional factors, such as urgency, the complexity and importance of the matter, and the skill required for its conduct, are likely to affect these fees.

Experience

Our team has over 36 years of collective experience in delivering high quality work in all matters relating to employment law.

We have 3 members of the team who may work on your matter. Regardless of who works on your matter, they will be supervised by Mohammed Shabir, Partner and Head of Immigration work.

Average fee ranges

At the beginning of the matter, we will provide an estimate of our likely charges however as there are so many variables in a matter such as this it may become necessary to revise our estimate. Any estimate revision will be fully discussed with you before any additional work is undertaken.

What does my fee include?

Your fee will include the following advice and assistance:

- Consideration of documents provided
- Attendances and communication with you to establish the facts of your matter and obtaining further information from you where necessary
- Expert advice on the relevant process and law in respect of your matter
- Preparing and submitting your application
- Drafting a detailed covering letter with reference to the relevant law setting out how the facts of your application meet the relevant requirements
- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you.
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria.

- If you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how, this on average takes 2-3 hours.
- Considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which we anticipate will take 2-21 hours.
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements).
Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 6-120 hours, depending on complexity.
- Attendance at a Home Office interview: if the Home Office asks you to attend an interview, we will give you clear advice (and discuss the possibility of us attending with you) at the appropriate time. This could be between 1-3 hours.
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.
The stages set out above are an indication and if some of stages above are not required, the fee may be reduced

Timescale

It is difficult to advise on a precise timescale as to how long the Home Office will take to make a decision on your application. We advise you to read the current processing times.

We hope to submit applications within 2-8 weeks of instruction. If we are unable to do so within this timescale, we will advise you at the earliest opportunity.
